News from the RCL

A Rusty-bug's guide to winter uniform

The tie

Frequent problem: It's inability to be tied properly, or its absence.

- ◆ Make sure it's correctly tied, and it isn't hanging loosely.
- ◆ The thicker end should be LONGER than the thinner end of the tie.
- ◆ Don't hide the lack of a tie with a scarf.
- ◆ Don't do it. Just wear it.
- ◆ Don't know how? Ask a fellow [knowledgeable] rusty-bug to show you how.

Prices:

School shop: R35,00

School and Leisure: R41,00

The stockings

Frequent problem: The unsightly ladders, and the accessories beneath them.

- ◆ Keep a [ladder-less] pair in your locker and work squad will be easily avoided.
- ◆ Contrary to popular belief, ankle socks are pretty obvious – same goes for anklets/leggings/knee-highs/trinkets/etc. If you're exceptionally cold, wear two pairs of stockings or wear your coat. It looks bad.
- ◆ Try to make sure your nails don't cause ladders either.
- ◆ If there are desks or chairs that are causing ladders, let us know. That's what we're here for.

Prices:

School shop: R30,00

Woolworths: R69,95 for 3 pairs

School and Leisure: R26,50 per pair

The jersey

Frequent problem: The strange desire for thumbholes.

- ◆ Frayed jerseys are old jerseys. Prefects are allowed to confiscate any such jerseys. If your sleeves are trailing a couple of metres behind you, it's time for a new one.
- ◆ Your thumbs truly don't need holes. If your hands are cold, invest in gloves – don't alter your jersey. Truth be told, it doesn't even look nice.
- ◆ Make sure your jersey hasn't been stretched, so that it looks too big for you.
- ◆ Remember, your jersey can't be worn without a blazer.
- ◆ Regular, cardigan and pull-over jerseys are all allowed.

Prices:

School shop: R150,00

Woolworths: R99,95

School and Leisure: R149,50

The coat

Frequent problem: Not always entirely clean.

- ◆ Try to get them dry-cleaned at least by the uniform change over.

Prices:

School shop: R200,00 - R250,00

depending on quality

School and Leisure: R550,00

The gloves.

Frequent problem: Cut off fingers.

- ◆ These can only be black or navy blue.
- ◆ Gloves should be whole – cut off fingers don't look very smart.

Prices:

School shop: R15,00

News from the RCL

The skirt

Frequent problem: Length.

- ◆ Make sure it's an appropriate* length. If it's too short, do something about. There are tailors in abundance.
- ◆ When someone rolls their skirt, the hem is uneven and it's easily noticeable. If your skirt is uncomfortably long, get it shortened to an appropriate* length. Rolling it doesn't look neat at all.

*appropriate: about 10cm above your knee at most.

Prices:

School shop: R35,00 – R40,00

School and Leisure: R135,00

The shirt

Frequent problem: Top button, tucked in.

- ◆ The top button has to be tied at all times. Make sure you buy the right size so it's not too small.
- ◆ Your shirt can't hang out. It has to be tucked in.
- ◆ You are allowed to walk around in just your shirt without your blazer, provided you're not walking around with your sleeves rolled up.

Prices:

School shop: R35,00 – R40,00

depending on the quality

School and Leisure: R108,50

Music Department News

Senior Spotlight Concert May 2011

Our annual Senior Music Spotlight Concert was held on Monday 9 May in the Kemp Hall. This event featured our Grade 10, 11 and 12 subject and extra-curricular Music learners.

The concert programme, which displayed a variety of musical genres and styles, highlighted the high level of musicianship at RGHS. The programme comprised 32 items, which included numerous piano and violin solos and duets, a string and saxophone quartet, the Jazz Combo, flute octet and Berocca G.

The flute octet, led by Karen Schuster and Lauren Denny, opened the concert with the last movement of Suite no 2 in b minor BWV 1067 by JS Bach, which was followed by piano duet with Christine Monteverdi and Nahyun Pak playing 'Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy' from the Nutcracker by PI Tchaikovsky.

We concluded the evening with Amy Walton singing 'Twisted' by Wardell Gray and Annie Ross, accompanied by our Jazz Combo.

Berocca G, this time in the form of a String Quartet, performed two works by two contemporary SA composers, John Joubert and Johan Cloete. Programme notes were provided by the FET subject music learners, which gave the audience useful background information and structural details on their pieces.

Thank you to the Music Parents Fundraising Committee for providing the refreshments during the interval, the Music Society committee, and the dedicated Music Staff who prepared the girls for their performances. Congratulations to all the Music learners who performed in this concert and thanks to our supporters.

Miss O Gordon

Cape Town Big Band Jazz Festival

Although I have performed in the CT Big Band Jazz Festival before, it was my debut as a conductor at the Festival. The girls were full of excitement and entered into the spirit of the occasion. At the performance, the crowd went wild after Cheryl Muchapondwa's drum solo and the members of the Band responded supportively while Yohan Chun, Gladys Kisela, Lauren Sanby and Roslyn Sanby took their solos. Amy Walton received a much deserved applause after her performance of the Natalie Cole favourite 'Orange Coloured Sky'. It was an inspiring evening for the RGHS Jazz Band. The girls had worked hard and it really showed on the night.

Miss R Miller

Cape Town Eisteddfod

Clarinet and Saxophone Ensembles

Both are new groups with mainly junior players who have just had their first experience of performing in public.

Notwithstanding the very daunting experience, our girls acquitted themselves very well, and now have a platform on which to improve.

Wind Band and Jazz Band

Although there were some minor drawbacks during the performance, such as the keyboard amplifier cutting out, the girls showed that they could perform under challenging conditions.

Both Bands each received an Honours award.

SAGSA Conference; Savuyisa Senior

The Senior players directed by their trainer, Lolo, showed their mettle and tenacity, having to perform for over an hour to welcome guests at the opening of the SAGSA Conference at RGHS on Thursday 19 May. Well done!

Miss R Miller

Jazz Combo

The Jazz Combo played background music for the final luncheon of the SAGSA Conference at Erinville on Friday 20 May.

The music was a fitting end to a successful week.

Miss R Miller

Rustenburg High and Junior amalgamate school shop

The recent upgrading of Rustenburg Girls' High School facilities included a new school shop, facing the new Fountain Quad, and looking onto what will eventually become a green boulevard linking the main school buildings to Charlie's Hope.

The school shop, which stocks all items of apparel, including sporting kit and necessary hair accessories needed by girls who attend Rustenburg, is ably managed by Mrs Linda Simmons.

Calculators, ballpoint pens, Consumer Studies aprons, the Rustenburg Recipe Book and Mathematics study cards are also for sale.

The school shop is the only supplier of Rustenburg book bags and sports tog-bags, both emblazoned with the official school crest.

Change rooms are available for learners who need to fit clothing items in order to determine sizing. For ease and convenience for parents, a credit card payment facility has been included.

The school shop buys and sells good quality second-hand Rustenburg clothing items. It is currently open during break times on Tuesday and Thursday (13h00—13h45) and again on Wednesday afternoons from 15h00.

This schedule is due for revision and new opening times will be made available in July 2011.

For some time now, Rustenburg Girls' High School principal Miss Laura Bekker, and Rustenburg Girls' Junior School principal Mrs Di Berry, have discussed options which would increase and strengthen ties between the two institutions.

The respective School Management Teams have met formally and are working on establishing an even closer association.

To this end, it has been decided to use the newly-refurbished school shop on the high school property to service both schools and to cater to the needs of all Rustybugs from the ages of 4 (Grade R) to 18 (Grade 12).
